

Federal Direct Parent PLUS Loan Information

Federal Direct Parent PLUS Loans are federal loans for parents of dependent, undergraduate students who are enrolled at least half-time (6 credits) can use to help pay for their child's educational expenses. For additional information regarding the PLUS Loan program, please visit: <https://studentaid.ed.gov/types/loans/plus>.

Credit check and endorser alternative:

A credit check will be conducted on all PLUS loan applicants. To be eligible for a PLUS Loan, you must NOT have an adverse credit history. If you are found to have an adverse credit history, you may still borrow a PLUS Loan if you get an endorser who does not have an adverse credit history. An endorser is someone who agrees to repay the PLUS Loan if you do not repay the loan. The endorser may not be the student on whose behalf a parent obtains a PLUS Loan.

Loan limits, interest rate and loan fees:

Visit <https://studentaid.gov> for the most current information.

Disbursement:

Federal Direct PLUS Loans are released in two equal disbursements per loan period, one at the beginning of the loan period and the second at the midpoint of the loan period.

Repayment:

The repayment period for a Direct PLUS Loan begins immediately after you've received the last disbursement of the loan, while your child is still in school. However, you may be able to defer making payments while your child is enrolled at least half-time, and for an additional six months after your child graduates, leaves school, or drops below half-time enrollment status. You have the option of requesting a deferment as part of the loan request process at <https://studentaid.gov>. You can also contact your loan servicer to request a deferment.

Dependent students whose parents have applied for the Direct PLUS Loan but were denied based on adverse credit, may be eligible to receive additional Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loan funds. Parent must submit their PLUS Denial Letter and the student must also submit a written statement to the Financial Aid Office requesting an increase in the Unsubsidized Loan due to the PLUS Loan denial.

Deadline: Must be received no later than 2 weeks prior to the end of the current term
